

Joint Sessional Committee
Workplace Culture Oversight
MEETING COMMUNIQUE

Tuesday, 19 May 2026

The Joint Sessional Committee on Workplace Culture Oversight (the Committee) met today and received a final briefing from the Independent Consultant, Mr Young.

The Committee would like to thank Mr Young for his outstanding level of service in fulfilling the Motion for Respect recommendations assigned which has importantly contributed to providing a safer and more respectful work environment for employees and Members across Ministerial and Parliamentary Services.

The implementation tracker has been updated accordingly to reflect progress and is available on the Committee's webpage.

The Committee is scheduled to meet next on Tuesday, 11 August 2026.

The Committee notes the importance of this review and encourages employees across each employee group to become fully informed and engaged to collectively work towards providing a better workplace for all employees.

The Committee further notes that change can be challenging and commits to providing ongoing updates to inform all interested parties.

For further information regarding the Committee's activity in overseeing implementation of Motion for Respect Report Recommendations, Implementation Trackers are available on the Committee's webpage to enable all interested parties, including all current and past employees of the MPS Workplace (as defined by the Motion for Respect Report to include elected Members of Parliament, Ministerial and Parliamentary Support employees, Parliament House employees and people performing contracted services) to access updated information in relation to progress of implementation of Motion for Respect Report Recommendations.

These documents will be updated regularly and any further relevant information provided to the Committee related to progress of the recommendations to ensure all interested parties have access to current information.
