Government Support for Representative Sportspeople

Mr FAIRS question to MINISTER for SPORT

We love nothing more than seeing our young people striving for excellence and representing Tasmania on a national stage. But for some families, the cost of this can be challenging and, in some cases, prohibitive. Mandy of Launceston and a few others have asked me: what is the Government doing to help Tasmanian families support their children to take up representative opportunities?