

National Trust – Support from Government

Ms BROWN question to MINISTER for ARTS and HERITAGE

My question is from Andrew in my electorate. Andrew would like to know why organisations like the National Trust in Tasmania, who do essential work on behalf of the state government, are struggling to survive under your watch? And how will the National Trust be supported by this government into the future?